BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE APPLE OF THE EYE:
—Keep me as the apple of the eye; hide me under the shadow of thy wings.—Psalm 17:8.

Mussolini, new Premier of Italy, appears to be standing firm in support of the Allies against Turkey, having declared that although Turkey whipped the Greeks they had not defeated the entente. If France takes the same stand the Turk may yet be taught a wholesome lesson.

While William A. Gaston did not succeed in winning the Senatorial seat from Senator Lodge, he gave him, no doubt, the scare of his life. Maybe he has been taught a wholesome lesson which will redound to the benefit of the country. It is a pity, though, that this reactionary of reactionaries could not have been unhorsed along with possibly many other better men.

MAKE THE STRANGER
WELCOME

Tomorrow is the great day for which we have been preparing for so long, and tomorrow SCOTLAND NECK will be host to many thousands. Let us welcome the stranger within our gates with open arms and a bright smile and make him feel that he is welcome.

SCOTLAND NECK people have a wonderful opportunity to make a name for themselves even greater than the one it already has for hospitality.

Let each one appoint himself a committee of one to welcome the hosts which will gather here, and let not one stranger go away when the day is over feeling that he has not been treated as a guest of the town.

It is a wonderful opportunity and we must measure up.

PEANUT EXCHANGE PRE-PARED TO HANDLE CROP

The War Finance Corporation has announced that it had advanced $1,000,000 to the Peanut Growers Exchange, Inc., to help finance this year's crop of peanuts, again showing the faith of the government in cooperative marketing and particularly in the Peanut Exchange. This is significant in view of the hard road which this organization has had to travel on account of the well financed fight made against it by the cleaners. They acknowledge that mistakes have been made in the past, but that they have profited by those mistakes and will from this time on serve the farmer to his great advantage.

The ingenuity of the sales manager whom they have employed, the same who put millions of dollars of raisins on the market which the growers thought would be a total loss to them, has again asserted itself in the method which he has planned to market peanuts by putting the raw peanuts in attractive packages and putting these packages on the shelf of every grocer throughout the country. "Pickaninny Peanuts" is the name which is to work the wonder. Not many months will elapse before this is a familiar household word throughout the country.

People like peanuts to eat, want them and will eat them if given the opportunity, and there is no reason to believe but what Mr. DePonier will make the same success of the peanut as he did of the raisin, and the farmer will be the one who reaps the profit. The peanut Exchange is functioning actively and those who handle their product through this channel will eventually reap a rich harvest and be well repaid for their faith and loyalty.

NOV. 11th, 1922.

The Scotland Neck Fair bids fair to equal any agricultural exposition that has been held in this section this year.

The agricultural and home economics department will be exceptionally good. The educational features will be very instructive.

The livestock exhibit will be the best that you have seen this year.

The entire proceeds of the Fair will be equally divided between Roseneath, Dawson, Hobgood and Scotland Neck Schools.
